Juniors Bid Seniors Goodbye At Reception With Theme "Fantasy Under The Sea"

On May 2, 1959, the Junior class honored the graduating class with a banquet. The theme of the banquet was "Fantasy Under the Sea." An under-water scene covered the entire north wall of the cafeteria. The center attraction was an old sunken chest lying in the sand and overflowing with sparkling jewels. The false ceiling and walls were made of blue crepe paper. Several kinds of fish hung from the ceiling to give the effect of being under the sea.

The Junior mothers provided the guests with a delicious meal served by the Freshmen girls in this "Neptune's Hideaway."

After the feasting, visitors from the bottom of the sea, the "Singing Seventeen" from St. Joseph College, entertained by singing several enjoyable selections.

To end the evening the sea-farers celebrated with worms (serpentines) and fish eggs (confetti) in a rousing swim (grand march) around the sea growth.

We loudly cheered and proudly beamed when our Indians ran out before the spectators, each of us joining in loyal support of our team. Whether the game was won or lost, we saw the varsity play with the spirit and sportsmanship that is a vital part of athletics.

Although the Indians had a mediocre season, they won more games than they lost. As the season progressed, the boys developed teamwork, respect for each other, and the ability to handle the ball.

Valuable Experience For Next Year

ROW I: Don Bunning, Chuck Abbring, Glen Walstra, Chuck Nannenga, Bill Dyke.

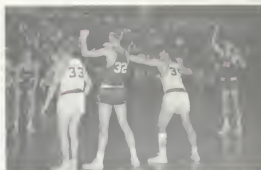

ROW II: Jody DeYoung, Dave Grevenstuk, Ronnie Walstra, Kenny De Vries, Joe Oezer, Bob Hana-way, Coach Scobey.

The second team boys gain valuable experience for varsity play in the first game of the evening. This team also won more games than they lost.

This team with the help of some of the varsity players point the way for a successful season next year.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1960, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

To the members of the Junior Class:

We, Mary Eide, Betty Boer, and Muriel Tomczak, will our boisterous ways to Pat Mucha, Carol Smith, and Margie Kiersma. We got ours by eating Wheaties.

I, Alvin Kamminga, will my student-manager's badge to Jack Marotta. Be sure you keep those basketballs shiny.

We, Delores Myers and Wesley Van Drunen, will our ability to get along with the teachers so well to Joan Takacs and David Bauman. You will enjoy the association.

I, Larry Hoffman, will my extraordinary dancing ability to Paul Bovenkirk. It's nice to have the girls fight over you.

We, Judy Zwart and Peggy Groet, will our undying school spirit to Anna Mae Hamstra and Judi Gardner. Remember our motto: "Always loyal to the team."

I, Connie Koster, will my majorette uniform to Lornell Hamstra. Too short? HMMMMMM--that's strange.

We, Maurice Tanis and Alvin DeVries, will our little black books to Ronnie Walstra and Ralph Kenning. They should keep you busy for awhile.

I, Harold Evers, will my cool turned-up collars to Jim Toppen. It's the sign of a "real-gone daddio."

We, Bob Drudge and Lyle Kessinger, will our senior speech books to Mary and Karen Vander Molen. Maybe we can learn you something that we got teached.

I, Ruth Ewart, will my pen-name "E-rat" to Richard Eeningenberg. Watch out for those traps.

I, Norma Kaluf, will my "peck-horn" to my sister, Margie Kaluf. Keep pecking, Marge.

I, Melodie Grevenstuk, will my friendly and affable ways to Joan Sekema. Always keep smiling.

We, Ronald Gross, Bob Hoffman, and Peter Boer, will our unusual ability to celebrate in the right way all holidays, weekdays, etc., to Mary Lou Boer, Joyce Terborg, and Joyce Kooy. Just be home before twelve.

I, Gayle Recker, will my ability to go steady to Sheila St. John. Remember, only one boy at a time.

I, Ronald Lonsberry, will my tremendous height to Tom Boring. Watch those doorways!

I, Bob Westerhoff, will my spot in the hall at noon to Donna DeVries. Just to keep it in the family.

We, Judi Nuss, Ruth Kaper, and Diana Grevenstuk, will our Hebron Fan-Club Cards to Jim Bunning, Bill Einsheistra, and Dean Musch. Keep the dues paid as we might need them again.

I, John Heerema, will my rodding ability to Kenny DeVries. Just manage to elude the teacher scouts.

I, Margaret Fritts, will my parking place at Swart's corner to Lynda Walstra and Beverly Zoeteman. You will have to get there early to reserve it.

I, Jerry Tanis, will my masculine physique to David Hart. Remember: lift those dumbbells three times a day.

We, Andrew Vander Molen and Lynn Kessinger, will our pipes and Prince Albert Tobacco to Sharon Nannenga and Marilyn Weirs. Keep the home fires burning, girls.

I, Ronald Eck, will my modest ways to Roger Recker.

I, Sandra Ramsey, will my naturally-curly hair to Linda Osburn. May your hair never look straight and stringy.

I, Bill Van Soest, will my "Romeo tactics" to Bill Postma. Just look what it got me.

We, Calvin Walstra and Tom Schoonveld, will our ambitious ways to Carol and Margaret Klemp. May you never work up a sweat.

I, Harold Holmes, will my leadership abilities to Larry Durinski. May you be president of the student council.

I, Bob Sipkema, will my acting ability to Lorna Odle. You may need a season in the hills to pick up the language.

I, Jim Sampson, will my trusty "Chevie" to Linda Moolenaar. It always breaks down in the most convenient places.

I, Joyce Zylstra, will my last position in the alphabet to Rudy Zylstra. Someday, maybe we will be first.

We, Sandra Shelhart and Betsy Bol, will our basketball ability in the girls tourney to Judy Post. May you leave as many fingernail marks as we did.

I, Jean Van Meerten, will my notorious gift of gab to Joyce Justice. It takes lots of thought and practice.

I, Wilma Hittle, will my long blonde hair to Mary Beth Starkey. Remember, a woman's hair is her best asset.

To the Faculty:

We give and bequeath to the faculty a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams. Also, we bequeath all the amazing knowledge and startling information that we have furnished them from time to time in our various examination papers. We know that much which we have imparted to them in this way must have been entirely new to them. We trust that they will also feel at liberty to make use of all such bits of wisdom and enlightenment for the education of classes to come after us.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared as and for our last will and testament by Judi Nuss and Connie Koster.

CLASS HISTORY

For twelve long years we, the Seniors of 1960 have been working to become part of the DeMotte alumni. We are now close enough that we can see our goal.

We began our Freshman year of high school in 1957. We had a membership of 52 at that time. We chose Mr. Tinney as our sponsor. As officers we chose: President, Larry Hoffman; Vice President, Bob Drudge; Secretary, Connie Koster; Treasurer, Ruth Ewart. Bob Hoffman and Betsy Bol represented us in the Student Council. Our heart candidates Bob Siphema and Connie Koster, were elected as king and queen.

There were 47 of us at the beginning of our Sophomore year. We chose Mr. Leslie to guide us through that year. Peggy Groet was elected as our President. Betsy Bol was our Vice President, Bill Van Soest our Secretary, and Larry Hoffman was our Treasurer. Norma Kaluf and Calvin Walstra were our Student Council Representatives. Our heart candidates for king and queen were Peggy Groet and Harold Evers. We again worked very hard and elected them king and queen.

Our Junior year began with 50 of us. Our officers were: President, Ruth Ewart; Vice President, Peggy Groet; Secretary, Melodie Grevenstuk; Treasurer, Ruth Kaper. Representing us in the Student Council were Betsy Bol and Larry Hoffman. Mrs. Hoepfner and Mr. Schilling were our sponsors. Our king and queen candidates, Judy Zwart and Jim Sampson, were elected king and queen in spite of close competition. We very appropriately chose as our motto "The End, Yet the Beginning." In the spring we honored the Seniors with a banquet. Our theme was "Fantasy Under the Sea."

We are now in our last year of high school. Our officers are: Ruth Ewart, President; Harold Holmes, Vice President; Judi Nuss, Secretary; Ruth Kaper, Treasurer. Norma Kaluf and Harold Holmes are our Student Council Representatives. We will graduate in our class colors, lavender and white. Our class will be the largest that has graduated from D. H. S. This year Mr. and Mrs. Mann are our sponsors. When this last year is completed we will take a trip to Washington, D. C. and New York.

We have reached the end of our high school career yet we are just beginning life.
